Big Ben

I visited London during Easter holidays. I had to ask people for direction several times while we were going there

London Eye

We went on the London Eye. There were lots of people in the queue so we left.

British Museum

We visited the British Museum. There were many people and they were pushing each other while we were trying to take a picture of the Rosetta Stone.

Harrods

On the last day, we went to Harrods. I was thinking of buying a souvenir until I saw how expensive everything was.
