

YOUR FIRST DAY AT WORK

ALEJANDRO SAINZ SAINZ – DAW2

Hey, Charlie.

It was great, but overwhelming at the beginning.

I tried to arrive earlier at the Police Station, I didn't want to be late the first day. I was not worried about the impression but you know I really care about punctuality.

The first thing I did was to introduce myself to my superior, Chief Officer Wilkins. He is a serious man, polite and direct, but I like him a lot. I think it will be great to work with him, under his direct orders.

First, he ordered me to help filling documents and do some paperwork. There is tons of paperwork to do, mountains, really.

At some point in the morning, all the officers got really excited. Some mates put under arrest a thief that was causing problems for some time. I watch him closely, he looked so calm but cold at the same time.

Later on, I was ordered to go to the car park to meet officer Andrews. Both of us went on patrol for the rest of the day. It was really easy, nothing important nor dangerous happened, but, at the end of the day it was really exciting to find and imagine all the new things I have to learn.

I am looking forward to do my best and keep working hard.
